Conditions & Guidelines

to exhibit at Gunaikurnai Land and Waters Aboriginal Corporation (GLaWAC)

Authorship and Originality of Work

- All works to be exhibited must be the original work of the artist(s).
- These works, or similar works, or images of works, must be viewed by staff at
- GLaWAC, and approved for display by the General Manager Culture and the Cultural Business Coordinator before being accepted to exhibit.
- Copyright issues related to a work, or elements within a work, must be considered by the artist before exhibiting work at GLaWAC. GLaWAC will assume no legal responsibility in cases of copyright dispute.

Installation

- GLaWAC staff will be responsible for the final selection of works to be displayed as well as their placement.
- All artworks are to be clearly labeled on the back with name, title, medium and retail price (please keep in mind that GLaWAC takes 15% commission on sales)

Insurance

- The Exhibitor is responsible for insurance cover for artworks while in transit to and from GLaWAC.
- GLaWAC does not provide insurance cover for artworks during transit.
- GLaWAC will take all due care but will not be responsible for any damage to artwork before and after the exhibition.
- GLaWAC takes full responsibility for artwork whilst on GLaWAC premises.
- In signing the Agreement, the Exhibitor accepts these conditions.

Sales and Commission

- 15% commission is applicable on all artworks sold.
- Artists will sign a GLaWAC Delivery Form with retail prices outlined. Please be aware the applicable GLaWAC commission will be deducted from your retail price.
- All artworks in the exhibition will be sold through GLaWAC.
- GLaWAC will pay the Artist, providing all purchases have been paid in full within 30 days of sale.
